HOPE:

A permanent solution to a temporary problem

Rich Dixon is living proof that it's possible to survive and thrive despite overwhelming tragedy, and that joy and fulfillment can be uncovered in the darkest circumstance. He speaks from experience about disappointments, dreams and opportunities.

Rich's honesty and vulnerability connect with listeners. His incredible story will motivate and inspire you to choose hope.

Rich blends self-deprecating humor, personal experience and practical application to inspire, entertain, and encourage a broad spectrum of audiences. His message of faith and grace challenges listeners to embrace hope.

"You'll chuckle and weep as God's healing love and unfailing grace paint surprising patterns in an intimate portrait of hard-won understanding." Jan Coates, Author/Speaker/Consultant, President, SetFreeToday Ministries

Rich offers Scripture-based encouragement to followers of Jesus. He also speaks to general audiences about inspiration, hope, and the opportunity for a full, joyful life within any circumstances.

Rich's experiences include:

- ♦ Published Author: RELENTLESS GRACE: God's Invitation To Give Hope Another Chance
- ♦ Author of numerous magazine articles
- ♦ Featured Blogger at SetFreeToday.com
- ♦ Thirty-five years as a professional educator
- ♦ B.S. & M.S. from Iowa State University

A freak accident and a paralyzing spinal cord injury initiated a desperate search for meaning in a broken body and a seemingly shattered life. Rich discovered that limits are mostly self-imposed and that sense can be discovered in senseless situations.

"Most of all, this story brims with hope in an unrelentingly gracious God who won't let go."

Rev. Mark Stephenson, Director of Disability Concerns, Christian Reformed Church in North America

Avoiding quick-fix solutions to complex issues, Rich approaches difficult topics with realistic acknowledgement of discouraging, painful struggles. He offers pragmatic perspectives on surviving and thriving in difficult situations.

"Rich's story challenged me at so many different levels... my faith, desire, hope, trust and commitments." Rev. Dary Northrup, Senior Pastor, Timberline Church, Fort Collins, Co

Rich will blend his personal story with your theme to meet the unique needs of your conference, workshop, retreat, or special event.

After a thirty-five year career as a teacher, Rich brings his unique brand of motivation and encouragement to audiences from all walks of life. Listeners will laugh, think, and maybe even shed a tear; they'll certainly be challenged to consider hope and possibility that await in the light of God's love.

Rich, his wife Becky, and Monte, Rich's service dog, live in Fort Collins on the beautiful front range of the Colorado Rocky Mountains. Monte adds a unique, endearing quality to Rich's appearances.

KEYNOTE PRESENTATIONS FOR FAITH-BASED AUDIENCES

Rich speaks in his distinctively frank, down-to-earth style about hope and possibility. Humor, passion, vulnerability, and an "edge" when appropriate, will leave your audience motivated, inspired, and challenged to face issues, overcome obstacles, and accomplish their dreams.

RELENTLESS GRACE: GIVE HOPE ANOTHER CHANCE

Have you ever wondered where God went when life falls apart? With an authentic mix of humorous episodes and intimate personal struggles, Rich shares his first-hand experience of a journey from darkness into light. Your audience will travel an inspirational path from sorrow to joy, hopelessness to optimism, tragedy to triumph. Discover the incredible possibilities that exist within God's invitation to give hope another chance.

IF GOD LOVES ME SO MUCH, WHY...?

Rich is especially motivated to share his perspective with people who confront disability, disease or other personal challenges. He talks with love from personal experience about the gut-wrenching, real-life questions facing caretakers, family members, and friends. God welcomes the questions, understands the pain, and cares for those who feel hopeless and lost. Uncover life-changing possibilities that materialize when you choose hope.
